

2013 Seton Hall Circuit Review Symposium: Building or Defending a Case - Social Media as a Catalyst for Tangible Employment Decisions and the Ethical Conundrum It Presents

Seton Hall Law School
February 5, 2013 | Events

James P. Flynn, Member of the Firm and General Counsel of Epstein Becker Green will moderate a panel discussion at the Seton Hall Circuit Review Symposium: "Be Careful Who You 'Like': Legal and Ethical Implications of Social Media Use in the Workplace and Employment and Labor Litigation" on February 5, 2013. This half day, 5-CLE-credit conference will be held at Seton Hall Law School in Newark.

The topic of Mr. Flynn's panel discussion is entitled "Building or Defending a Case: Social Media as a Catalyst for Tangible Employment Decisions and the Ethical Conundrum It Presents."

For more information, please click here.

People

James (Jim) P. Flynn
Managing Director / Member of the Firm
Commercial and Contract
Litigation
Newark
973-639-8285
jflynn@ebglaw.com