

NELI Annual Employment Law Conference: e-Workplace - Privacy, Access, and Security in the Era of "The Cloud," Social Media, and BYOD

Chicago, IL

November 14, 2013 | Events

Adam Forman, Member of the Firm, presents "e-Workplace: Privacy, Access, and Security in the Era of 'The Cloud,' Social Media, and BYOD" at the National Employment Law Institute's Thirty-Fourth Annual Employment Law Conference.

Analysis of key legal, technology and Human Resource issues relating to workers' privacy as employers decide how intensely to restrict, monitor and scrutinize employees, applicants and litigants both inside and outside the workplace's physical and virtual walls, covering recent developments as to the ever-growing "Cloud," employers' rights to review and limit social-networking postings, limitations and rewards of bring-your-own-device (BYOD), data security, statutory prohibitions on forced disclosure of personal logins/passwords, discoverability of social media, compliant background checks, and ownership of contact lists and other confidential information.

For more information, please contact Mr. Forman.

People

Adam S. Forman
Member of the Firm
Employment, Labor & Workforce
Management
Detroit, Chicago
248-351-6287
aforman@ebglaw.com