

Media Covers Daniel Dwyer's Move to Epstein Becker Green

Law360, Bloomberg Law, The Boston Bar Association

January 28, 2026 | Media Coverage

Daniel J. Dwyer, Member of the Firm in the Litigation & Business Disputes practice, in the firm's Boston office, was featured in Law360, Bloomberg Law, and the Boston Bar Association.

Following are excerpts:

Law360, "Hub Hires: Seyfarth, Weil, Merchant & Gould," by Chris Villani. (Read the full version – subscription required.)

Epstein Becker Green announced that trial lawyer Daniel Dwyer has joined the firm's litigation and business disputes practice in Boston.

In the announcement, the firm touted Dwyer as "a first-chair litigator with more than 25 years of courtroom experience resolving complex business disputes and fiduciary litigation for companies and individuals across industries, including financial services, health care, life sciences, private equity, and technology."

Dwyer focuses on business and fiduciary disputes in federal and state courts, arbitrations and mediations, his new firm said.

"My clients value practical strategy, clear communication, and a steady hand in the courtroom," Dwyer said in a statement. "Epstein Becker Green's fast-growing Boston team and deep national bench in complex disputes provide the platform to deliver exceptional results for clients in Massachusetts and across the country."

People

Daniel J. Dwyer
Member of the Firm
Commercial and Contract
Litigation
Boston
617-603-1099
ddwyer@ebglaw.com

Focus Areas

Services

Employment Litigation
Employment, Labor & Workforce Management
Financial Services Litigation
Health Care
Health Care Litigation
Litigation & Business Disputes

Industries

Financial Services
Hospitals and Health Systems

Bloomberg Law, "Epstein Becker Brings Business Litigator Dwyer to Boston Office." (Read the full version – subscription required.)

Daniel Dwyer joined Epstein Becker Green as a partner in its litigation & business disputes practice in Boston, the firm announced Tuesday.

Dwyer focuses on business and fiduciary disputes in federal and state courts, arbitrations, and mediations. He represents corporate directors and officers, closely held businesses and their principals, physicians and physician groups and private family trustees and beneficiaries in matters involving breaches of contract, trade secret misappropriation, unfair competition, intra-corporate conflicts, and real estate controversies, the firm said.

Boston Bar Association, "Trial Attorney Daniel Dwyer Joins Epstein Becker Green in Boston."

Epstein Becker Green announced that trial attorney Daniel Dwyer has joined the Litigation & Business Disputes practice in its Boston office. Dan brings vast courtroom experience that greatly strengthens the firm's ability to successfully guide clients, including corporate leaders and physician groups, through every phase of litigation.